Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts considers applicants for membership without regard to race, religion, gender, national or ethnic origin, marital status, disability, or sexual orientation.

There is a myriad of benefits to membership in Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts.

Most members volunteer for Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts because of a desire to help provide funding for the arts. Design and architecture aficionados are attracted to our organization for the opportunity to observe a renovation process and learn about new design and product concepts. Whatever your interests may be it is relevant to note that the majority of member positions are not related to design. However, all roles are of significance in bringing about the annual Pasadena Showcase House of Design.

Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts is composed of a hardworking, interesting, and fun group of individuals where camaraderie can always be found. It is through this camaraderie and a variety of shared experiences that many long-lasting friendships take form. Additionally, members will enjoy invitations to various social occasions, as well as the opportunity to queue up for two complimentary tickets to a concert at the Walt Disney Concert Hall and tickets to the Hollywood Bowl presented by the Los Angeles Philharmonic. A well-priced opportunity to attend more concerts is also offered.
